ENGLAND'S AIM

Seeking Further Concessions in Bering Sea.

This is the Way Her Attitude is Interpreted at Washington.

An Old English Admiral Scouts the Idea of Real Trouble.

A Federal Court Renders a Decision Sustaining the Rights of the United States and Condemning a Captured Sealer.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A Cabinet officer said today that he felt confident that Great Britain would consent to a renewal of the modus vivendi of last year; or, if she does not, she will not interfere or resist the efforts of this Government to preserve the seals pending arbitration. Nothing further than what has been published has been received from Lord Salisbury.

The minds of a majority of Senators have been considerably cleared of misapprehension as to points involved in the dispute between the United States and Great Britain by the discussions in the executive sessions during the past week. It would have been well, according to one of the most broad-minded Senators, if the public could have been truthfully informed upon these points, for popular ignorance prevails in England as well as in the United States, if the London newspaper comments are a criterion. For instance, it was suggested that if the United States consented to pay the damages sustained by seal owners in the event of the arbitrators deciding the claim of the United States not well founded, Lord Salisbury would renew the modus vivendi. It is learned now that as far back as last June the President suggested that the liability of the United States for each government for damages inflicted upon citizens or property be left to the decision of the arbitrators. The British government declined to commit itself to the doctrine that it is responsible for the acts of its subjects, what in the language of Salisbury, "involves the proposition that Her Majesty's government is liable to make good losses resulting from the wrong action of persons sailing outside its jurisdiction under the British flag."

The United States Government has been willing to drop the question of damages, but insisted that it is to be considered the questions submitted also include a determination of the loss inflicted upon the United States through the illegal killing of seals by British subjects. The President finally consented to a modification which was included in the treaty, permitting the two governments to submit to arbitrators the facts bearing upon claims for damages and leaving to future determination the question of liability.

The question of damages was in this condition when the treaty was signed, and has not since been touched upon in the correspondence. It was argued on the part of those Senators who said that the British government would doubtless consent to a renewal of the modus vivendi if it could assure the Canadians against loss from the illegal seizure of their vessels that Great Britain had made an agreement with the government of Sweden and Norway for the protection of seals on those coasts, and had also consented to an agreement with France looking to regulation of the fisheries of the North Atlantic. She would be willing to enter into a fair arrangement of the same nature with the United States. When the modus vivendi was negotiated last year Salisbury said in the House of Lords, referring to the extermination of seals: "It seems to us on the whole that the proposition is a reasonable one, and we should be fully incurring the cost, not only of the United States, but of the civilized world, if by adhering too closely to any technical right we should incur the risk of the destruction of this valuable industry and valuable animal."

There is much speculation in the Senate as to the cause of the sudden change of mind by Lord Salisbury. His ostensible reason for opposing a renewal of the modus vivendi is the representations of the commissioners sent to Alaska to the effect that there is no necessity for a renewal. The real reason is believed by a number of Senators to be a disposition to support his present position to gain concessions from the United States upon other points of the controversy, such as unsettled claims for damages, so as to favorably impress Canada with an apparent disposition to heed their demands, and avail himself of the present opportunity to retaliate upon this Government for alleged infringement of the spirit of last year's modus vivendi in permitting the North American Commercial Company to kill more than 7500 seals. It is believed that these reasons will so far influence Salisbury as to prevent a renewal of the modus vivendi on terms the same as last year, but not to determine him to use force to protect sealers in actions for which he had declined to assume responsibility.

A SEALER CONDEMNED.

THE RIGHTS OF THE GOVERNMENT UPHOLD BY SEATTLE (Wash.) March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Late this afternoon Judge Hanford handed down a decision in the famous Bering Sea case which is entitled the United States vs. the schooner James G. Swan. The schooner was seized July 20, 1889, and was condemned as forfeited to the United States for killing fur seals in the waters of Alaska in violation of the United States statutes. The schooner belonged to an Indian named Chestoqua Peterson, and was seized by a crew of white men. It was claimed by the defense that the criminal laws of the United States had no force on the sea beyond cannon-shot from shore, and therefore the Government had no power to prohibit the BERLIN, March 26.—[Copyright, 1892, by the New York Associated Press.] The Emperor means to give himself and his ministers a rest from parliamentary worries by immediately proroguing both the Reichstag and Landtag. The former body will be indefinitely prorogued next week. The Landtag will be nominally prorogued until the end of October, but will not meet again for business until a new house is elected. In view of the suspension of parliamentary life it is futile to study how the political groups will arrange themselves under the ministerial changes. Members of the Center party in the Reichstag are in revolt and are ready to vote any way to defeat the government, but they are powerless to do more than assist to eject minor items of the budget. It can be predicted that the attitude of Von Eulenburg, the President of the Council, and Bosse, Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs, when they meet the lower house of the Prussian Diet on Monday, will be distinctly friendly.

The Conservative and Center groups are both bent on finding some method of reconciling the Catholics to the present adjournment and the elections. They hope to renew the compact with the Clericals and then appeal to the constitution. The compact may enable Von Eulenburg to defy a possible liberal coalition. His enemies say he will work to win with a Conservative and moderate liberal, or a Conservative and Clerical alliance.

It is ascertained that Von Eulenburg will endeavor to prevent estrangement with the Clericals. As to his relations with Von Caprivi, the latter opposed his appointment knowing that he would be a dangerous rival for the imperial Chancellorship. The duration of the present provisional arrangement after the elections is impossible. Those best acquainted with Von Eulenburg say that he will succeed in ousting Von Caprivi from the Prussian ministry and imperial Chancellorship within the current year.

There was an interesting discussion in the Reichstag today on Richter's questioning Von Caprivi as to the probable abandonment by the government of the Primary Education Bill. The Chancellor replied that he found it impossible to carry out the policy of bettering the lot of the workers of Bismarck. He said it would be sinning against the German empire to purchase benefits for it at the expense of Prussia. The anxieties he had endured as President of the Prussian ministry had been the greatest of his life. It would strengthen the stability of the empire to make the imperial Chancellor independent of Prussian affairs. Germany, he declared, would come out of the present crisis with renewed force arising from the ministerial changes. Bennigsen took the credit for leading the opposition to success against the education proposals. Liebknecht expressed his rejoicing over the collapse of a measure which menaced religious freedom in Prussia.

Caprivi remains as representative of the Prussian ministry in the Bundsrath. The Emperor returned this evening from Hildesheim. He looked well and showed no traces of recent illness.

BERLIN, March 26.—The Conservative, National, Liberal and Polish parties held a meeting and decided to support the credit asked for the construction of new ironclads. Members of the Center party also met today and definitely decided to oppose the credit, thus starting an open revolt against the government.

A SICKENING SCANDAL.

An American Arrested in Berlin for a Hideous Crime.

BERLIN, March 26.—[Copyright, 1892, by the New York Associated Press.] The case of the American, K. M. R. Whitney, who was arrested last week, has assumed proportions of a most gross scandal. Long prior to the arrest the police were warned through a priest that men addicted to unnatural offenses met in a certain restaurant. The place was watched and it was found that a company of forty-five men, many of whom were attired in women's clothes, assembled in the restaurant, where a mock ceremony was being performed, with Whitney as the bride, dressed in white satin. The bridegroom was a cavalry private. Dr. Saal, an American, acted as the clergyman. The ceremony was stopped by detectives. The subsequent charges against Whitney on the specific charge of committing a foul offense, it is said that Whitney's income is $25,000. Bail was refused in his case.

France Will Expel Anarchists.

WALT WHITMAN DEAD.

A Peaceful Ending of the "Good Gray Poet's" Life.

"A Weary Shift" His Last Words—His Remains to be Laid to a Tomb He Selected Some Time Ago.

By Telegram to The Times.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Calmly and peacefully, like a child asleep, Walt Whitman passed away this evening. He had been weaker than usual for some days past. He had a sinking spell last night, but recovered somewhat. Again at 4:30 he began to sink. Dr. Alex McAllister reached the dying man bed shortly before the end. The aged poet was in a dying condition. He asked the patient if he suffered any pain, and the whispered answer was "No."

Three minutes before his death he said to an attendant, "A weary shift." They were the last words uttered by Mr. Whitman. His breathing came fainter and fainter, and at 6:45 he passed away.

At the time of the "good gray poet's" death the bedside in the humble little frame cottage was surrounded by a little group. Thomas B. Haward, a close friend; Horace L. Traub, the secretary; Dr. McAllister and the housekeeper and a faithful male attendant. The news of the death was cabled to Lord Tennyson and other friends in England, to Dr. Buck of Ontario, Whitman's biographer, and to friends in this country. Tomorrow a plaster cast of the dead features will be made.

Whitman left a carefully drawn will, but its contents will not be made public until after the funeral ceremony. The remains of the deceased will be placed in the recently completed tomb in Haverly Cemetery in Camden, a spot selected by Mr. Whitman when he was enjoying his usual health and where he visited many times during the construction of the tomb. No arrangements are perfected for the funeral.

Fraternal Guardians in Trouble.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—A bill in equity was filed this morning asking that a receiver be appointed for the order of Fraternal Guardians. It is charged that there is a scheme to hand over a sum of money to the few members who first joined the order at the expense of those who came in later. The official report shows that the society has in force 8312 benefit certificates representing a contract liability of over $4,000,000, while the assets amount to only $881,351, leaving a deficiency of not quite $3,000,000 to be made up by assessments on the members. It is alleged that a large number of benefit certificates mature next June and will continue to mature thereafter; that two assessments, payable on the 30th inst., have recently been levied by the supreme officers, and that the District Attorney is about to institute quo warranto proceedings to have the order's charter declared void. A preliminary injunction was granted with security of $1000.

DEEMING CONFESSES.

He Admits Butchering His Wife and Four Children,

And That He Committed Two of the Whitechapel Murders.

Suspected of Still Another Atrocity in Australia.

London Police Doubt the Truth of His Admission That He is the "Ripper" Whom They are Seeking.

By Telegram to The Times.

MELBOURNE, March 26.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Argus announces that Deeming has confessed to the murder of his wife and four children at Dinham Villa, Rainhill, near Liverpool, and that he has also confessed to the murder and mutilation of the last two women whose bodies were found in the purlieus of Whitechapel. Deeming's appearance closely tallies with the description given of the Whitechapel murderer, "Jack the Ripper," and though he does not admit killing the Whitechapel victims, it is believed that when he finds all hope of escape from the clutches of the law cut off, he will confess not only to these murders, but to others of which the police know nothing.

It transpires that the unfortunate man who was found together with the four children under the floor of the 14th residence was not Deeming's wife. Some years ago a sensation was created in Australia by the mysterious disappearance of the wife and two children of a man who then went by the name of Williams, but who turns out to be Deeming. The family then resided in Sydney. There was grave suspicion of his play at the time, but the bodies were not found and the essential proof of guilt being lacking the matter was allowed to drop. Deeming subsequently went to England and married the woman whose murder he now confesses himself to have committed.

The Argus says that Deeming makes no mention of his offence in mutilating the bodies of the Whitechapel victims, but adds that there is scarcely a doubt that he is afflicted with a disease similar in some respects to nymphomania.

LONDON, March 26.—The papers publish Deeming's confession of the Rainhill and Whitechapel murders today. The story caused most intense excitement. There is much difficulty in fixing the two Whitechapel murders to which Deeming is said to have confessed, although ten murders are attributed to "Jack the Ripper," there is much doubt as to whether the last two were committed by the same hand that committed the other eight. The police of the Leman street station do not place much belief in the confession that Deeming committed the two last crimes. They admit, however, that if the confession refers to the murder of Alice MacKenzie, which occurred in 1889, and Mary Kelly, committed in 1888, it is possible that Deeming is telling the truth.

The police give as a reason for saying that Deeming is not the murderer of Frances Cole the fact that at the time she was killed Deeming was serving a nine-months' sentence at Hull for a jewelry theft.

The Scotland Yard authorities have received no private information from Melbourne regarding the confession and attach little importance to Deeming's statements that he killed two of the Whitechapel women. They say they believe Deeming's object in making the confession is to secure a remand and be brought to England. This is a well-known trick of criminals.

WITH DUMMY RABBITS.

A Peculiar Course Match Begun at Denver—The Winner.

DENVER (Colo.), March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The interstate course match opened here today. California, Kansas, Texas, Montana and Colorado were represented. On account of the humane society's interference, dummy rabbits strung on wires were substituted. The dogs did not relish the counterfeit, and did not do as well as they might otherwise have done. G. R. McDougall's (Butte) Yonder, He Goes won from William Shaw's (Denver) June; F. D. Levy's (San Francisco) Shamrock won from H. L. Lermon's (Clifton) Monarch; D. L. Levy's John Walker won from H. C. Lowe's Comedy; Page's (Denver) Fleetwood won from D. D. Levy's California Belle; S. C. Lowe's Prince Charles won from Levy's Snowball; Lowe's Little Climber won from Dr. Vanhummel's (Denver) Glendarn; Levy's Salt Lake Boy won from Lowe's Twister. The coursing will continue tomorrow and Monday.

A Hunter's Fatal Accident.

SAN DIEGO, March 26.—Dr. Hughes, a well-known resident of this city, was accidentally killed while hunting ducks at South San Diego today. The doctor was driving his boat along the beach and had his shotgun between his knees in the buggy. The horse became frightened and attempted to run away. In attempting to hold the animal the lines caught on the hammer of the gun. The gun was discharged, the load striking the doctor in the chest and throat. Death followed almost instantly.

The Yorktown at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The U.S.S. Yorktown from Valparaiso, Chile, via San Diego, arrived today and came to anchor in the stream. She will remain here for a few days and then proceed to Mare Island and go into the dock to receive a cleaning. It is the first appearance of the Yorktown in these waters, and there was quite a large crowd on the wharves eager to see her.

Wife Murderer and Suicide.

SANTA CRUZ, March 26.—Fred Adams today shot and seriously wounded his wife and then killed himself. Mrs. Adams supported the family by business as a magnetic healer, and had considerable trouble with her husband on account of his refusal to work.

Thought It Was Not Loaded.

LATHROP, March 26.—George B. Fox, son of Judge C. N. Fox of Oakland, while performing a trick with what he thought was an unloaded pistol, shot himself through the body over the region of the liver. The wound is very serious. Dr. A. Clark of Stockton is attending him. His parents were sent for. His father is absent from home.

Minister Field Returning Home.

HAVES, March 26.—Minister White-law held and Mrs. Held sailed for the United States this morning on the steamer La Champagne.

A BORDER TRAGEDY.

One of a Pair of Elopers Killed by a Texas Ranger.

CORPUS CHRISTI, (Tex.), March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Two Texas rangers, with a guide, while in search of horse-thieves, encountered two Mexicans riding the same horse and called upon them to stop. For reply one of the Mexicans fired at the rangers without effect. Coy, the guide, returned the shot and brought the man down, the ball passing through his body, causing instant death.

The other Mexican sprang from the horse, and kneeling beside the prostrate dying man raised his head and began sobbing and begging him not to die. The rangers came up and discovered that the uninjured Mexican was a sixteen-year-old girl, dressed in male attire, and the dying man her lover. They had eloped for the purpose of getting married.

BOCKLERS INDICTED.

The Chicago Grand Jury Again Gets Down to Work.

The Inquiry Turned to Members of the Board of Education—Evidence Given Implicating Persons of High Standing.

By Telegram to The Times.

CHICAGO, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Aldermen Bowler and Nicholson were indicted today by the grand jury, making nine city fathers in all who must defend themselves before judge and jury or don striped clothes. The specific charge against Bowler is that he attempted to mulct real estate owners to the extent of thousands of dollars for putting through the street-car ordinance on Milwaukee avenue; that against Nicholson is that he tried to bleed coal merchants who wanted permission of the City Council to lay switching tracks.

This afternoon the investigation took an unexpected turn, the inquiry leading away, for the time being, from the crooked aldermen to members of the city Board of Education.

City Jones, the hearing apparatus manufacturer, was called upon to explain how his firm received all the contracts. Jones was under fire but a few minutes when he faintly. A great commotion ensued. He soon revived. His testimony, if true, reflects seriously on ex-State Senator M. B. Herley, one of the members of the Board of Education, and Banks Cregier, son of ex-Mayor Cregier; Thomas Jones, a clerk, and H. Goodrich, secretary of the Mascotah Kennel Club. It was claimed that about $2000 had been paid Herley and young Cregier, to the former to get fat contracts and to the latter to have Herley appointed by Mayor Cregier. Goodrich succeeded Jones on the witness stand and declared that Jones's testimony was maliciously false. The foreman of the grand jury, Lieb, this evening said he was not entirely satisfied with the work of the present grand jury and was sure there was a leak from it. He may recommend calling a special grand jury.

STATE CAPITAL.

McKenna's Resignation Received—Appointments by the Governor.

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Governor yesterday received the resignation of Joseph McKenna, Congressman from the Third District.

The Governor today made the following appointments: Trustees of the San José Normal School—Ralph Lowe (reappointed), Philo Hersey, to succeed French; T. S. Montgomery, vice Denman; C. H. Phillips, San Luis Obispo, vice Swett; Hon. A. H. Rhodes, San Francisco, vice Archer. Director of the Stockton Asylum—Archibald McDonald of San José, vice Watt, resigned. Directors of the Napa Insane Asylum—B. F. Shurtleff of Napa, J. Q. Brown of San Francisco (reappointed). Gov. Markham will spend several weeks visiting public institutions of the State.

FOUGHT IN A CHURCH.

A Bloody Affray Within the Walls of a Sacred Edifice.

WINNIPEG, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A dispute between Oswald Spencer and Niles McArthur over a land claim culminated yesterday in a sensational shooting at a Presbyterian social at Whitehead, N. W. T. Spencer rushed upon McArthur in church with an open jack-knife and stabbed him several times. Rev. S. B. Musselman, a Methodist minister, grabbed Spencer's wrist and several more men assisted. Spencer struggled violently and the sacred building became the scene of a wild struggle. A panic ensued and one woman fainted. Spencer was eventually forced from the church and taken to the barracks, where he was committed for trial without bail. McArthur's face was badly lacerated, but he is not fatally injured.

Testing New Projectiles.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Ericsson gun and sub-marine projectile has been tested at Fort Wadsworth by the Board of Ordnance and Fortifications. Two shots were fired and both were unsuccessful. The first disappeared after the second immersion and the second struck the water. The next test will be made soon.

Tests of the pneumatic disappearing gun carriage were made today. They were satisfactory as far as they went.

Judge Botkin's Rulings Contested.

TORONTO (Kan.), March 26.—William Minton, People's party candidate for Sheriff of Seward county, has instituted proceedings in the Supreme Court to oust E. S. Cushman, declared Sheriff by the contest in the court, from the office. The proceedings include charges against Judge Theodore Botkin, and will force a review of the alleged conspiracy by the Supreme Court.

Run Over and Killed.

SAN DIEGO, March 26.—At a late hour tonight a woman, whose name is not known, was run over by a street car on the outskirts of the city and killed. The head was completely severed from the body and the arms and legs were broken and the body terribly mutilated.

Heavy Failure.

LONDON, March 26.—Col. Bolckow, of Bolckow, Vaughan & Co. (limited), large iron masters and colliery owners, near Middlesbrough, have failed. The failure caused great sensation in the Middlesbrough district.

THE SILVER STRUGGLE.

Both Sides Preparing for the Battle This Week.

The "Antis" Hope to Beat the Bland Bill by a Small Majority.

Free Coinage Men Less Hopeful of the Final Result.

The Contest Will Probably be Renewed in the House on Tuesday—Other Matters at the National Capital.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Representative Catchings will reach the city on Monday, and when he returns a rule to bring the silver bill to a vote will be adopted by the Rules Committee and will make its appearance in the House on Monday. The anti-silver men are making a strong fight to defeat the rule and are hopeful of success. From present indications the chances are against them. They have the support of some Democrats who would not vote directly against the free coinage bill, but on the other hand there are a considerable number of Republicans who will probably vote for the rule or not vote at all, which would have the same effect, in order to force a square test vote on the question of free coinage. These men will vote against the Free Coinage Bill when it comes up on its merits, but are against sidetracking the bill. Messrs. Reed, Dingeldey and others are in favor of voting against the Silver Bill in all its parliamentary stages from now on. Messrs. Burrows, Henderson of Iowa, Hopkins of Illinois and other Western Republicans, with some Eastern men, will not agree to this programme.

When the question comes up on passage of the bill, however, there is no doubt as to how the Republicans will stand, and there will then be an alliance between the anti-silver Democrats and all except nine of the Republicans. Messrs. Funston of Kansas and Taylor of Ohio, who heretofore have voted with the free coinage men, will vote against the bill on its merits. The anti-silver Democrats assert that they can win the fight on its merits, but by a narrow majority. The free coinage men have abated to a remarkable degree their confidence in their ability to pass a free coinage measure through the House, and are endeavoring to have all their men present when the vote is taken. A number of free coinage men are doubtful of the result and expect defeat by one to five votes.

Mr. Warner of New York expressed today the belief that the bill could not pass the House. It was dying, but dying very hard, he added. Speaker Crisp said this afternoon that he did not think a rule relative to the Silver Bill could be brought into the House and called up Monday, but that it would probably come up Tuesday.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] House.—The House today proceeded to the consideration of pension bills reported favorably from the committee of the whole. After passing seventeen public business was suspended and the colleagues of the late Congressman Spinoia proceeded to pay a tribute to his memory, after which the House adjourned.

Coming Railroad Convention.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—A call has been issued for a national convention of railroad commissioners to be held at the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission in this city, April 13, 1892. Railroad commissioners of all States and State officers charged with any duty connected with railroads are requested to attend. The Association of American Railroad Officers is also invited. It was suggested that notification of the topics involving questions of State and interstate commerce which it is desired to bring up for discussion be sent to E. A. Mosely, secretary, Washington, D. C.

Favor Restricting Immigration.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The Senate and House joint committee today heard delegations from labor organizations in favor of Representative Stone's bill restricting immigration. Mr. Stone first addressed the committee advocating and explaining its salient issues. Mr. Everhardt, president of the Window Glass Workers' Association of America, urged upon the committee the necessity of changing the present law, and spoke of the inadequacy of the present system of inspection and said he thought it should be made abroad. O. P. Cochran, president of the United Association of Mechanics, also favored the bill.

Maj. Throckmorton's Sentence Mitigated.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The President has mitigated the court-martial's sentence of Maj. Charles B. Throck-

THE MESSIAH CRAZE.

It Breaks Out Among the Tribes in Indiana.

CHICAGO, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Messiah craze has again made its appearance among the Pawnee and Otoe Indians. W. W. White, a Pawnee, and Buffalo Track, an Otoe, have been brought here in irons from their respective reservations. They have been telling the Indians that a great Messiah is coming who will bring with him all the Indians in the happy hunting grounds; that under his leadership the whites will be swept from the face of the earth, and the original prairies, forests, buffalo and deer will reappear. Children go to school decked in war-paint and feathers. There was difficulty in making the arrests and it is possible hostilities may follow.

Not Shadowed by the Pinkertons.

CHICAGO, March 26.—F. Murray, Superintendent of Pinkerton's Chicago branch, was asked this morning about Joseph Henselman of San Francisco, now in Pittsburgh, who claims to have been bounded by Pinkerton men for several months. Mr. Murray said he knew nothing of the young man and he is not wanted in connection with the Glendale train robbery or anything else. "We secured nearly all of that gang," he said. "The only one now at large is Dick Wilson, whom we will eventually capture. I think the young man must be crazy. I can state positively that he was never shadowed by our men."

Death of a Banker.

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.), March 26.—H. R. Symonds, vice-president of the First National Bank of Chicago, and well known in financial and business circles in the West, died today of Bright's disease at the St. James Hotel in this city. He had been about six weeks, but was not considered dangerously ill until ten days ago. He was 52 years of age.

Large Fire at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—Fire this evening damaged the carpet, rug and curtain works of John Bromley & Sons, Lehigh avenue and Front street, to the extent of $300,000. It is believed the fire was started by spontaneous combustion. The immense four-story brick structure, known as Mill No. 1, was destroyed.

The Yosemite Season Opened.

RAYMOND, March 26.—The first through stage for the Yosemite Valley, with a party of tourists, left here this morning. This permanently opens the line to the Yosemite for this season.

Verdict of Acquittal.

UTICA (N. Y.), March 26.—The case of Richard T. Connell, charged with bringing Chinese into the country from Canada, was given to the jury at 5:30 p.m. yesterday. Today a sealed verdict of not guilty was returned.

FIGHTING A TRUST.

The Whisky Combine not to Have the Entire Field.

PROBIA (Ill.), March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Rumors have been in circulation for several days to the effect that the Peorians who sold stock in the Distillers' and Cattle Feeders' Company contemplate the erection of new distilleries for the purpose of fighting the trust. Samuel Woolner was mentioned as being interested in the new plan, and a reporter called on him today for information. He said the report is correct; that he had associated himself with others for the purpose of building two distilleries—each of about 5000 bushels capacity.

"The trade we formerly had," said Woolner, "asks us to go into business again, and I am satisfied we will get enough to take our entire production. Since I disposed of my stock in the Distillery, and Cattle Feeders' Company I had nothing to do, and as I desire to be active I decided again to go into the distilling business. I expect to produce cheaper than the trust, for I am a practical distiller and can manage my own business, while the trust is compelled to hire practical distillers to do it for them. I am trying to get possession of a new process recently discovered in Hungary. It does away with the use of malt in the production of spirits and alcohol from corn and will greatly reduce the cost of production. It will be a great deal cheaper than was first claimed for the Takamine process. If it is a success we propose to build barns and feed enough cattle to use the entire crops. We expect to be running by fall if the weather is favorable."

LEAGUE BASEBALL.

The Season in This City Opened in Grand Style.

By Far the Best Game Ever Witnessed on the Local Diamond.

Won by Vanderbock's Giants by the Decisive Score of 10 to 5.

The San Francisco Boys Outplayed all Along the Line from First to Last—Result of the San Jose—Oakland Game.

A glorious day, a glorious game and a glorious—almost—crowd of 2500 people all combined to make the opening of the California League season at the Athletic Club Park yesterday afternoon a most notable occasion. A more representative crowd of spectators was never before seen at any similar exhibition in Southern California, and March 26, 1892, will long be remembered as a red-letter day in Los Angeles baseball annals. Among the spectators were fully 500 ladies, all of whom will go again if the interest manifested by them yesterday is an indication.

The baseball parade, headed by a band, was on Broadway, Main and Spring streets from 12:30 till nearly 2 o'clock, when the two clubs were driven to the grounds, where an hour's practice work was had.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the score's gong sounded and the San Francisco boys scampered to their places in the field. On the bleachers, in the grand stand and even on the kindergarten bleachers there was a perfect sea of human faces, all wearing an anxious look, as though they were awaiting the first returns from a Presidential election.

When Mayor Hazard walked out into the diamond and took his place in the pitcher's box, with a new ball in his hand, there was a deafening shout sent up again and again, until the Mayor took off his hat to the crowd and further distinguished himself by standing on one foot and performing several of the gyrations which, it is understood, wind up the various curves. When the crowd had set up another mighty yell, Mayor Hazard called "Play ball," and a moment later "Rasty" Wright was limping toward first base, rubbing his leg where the ball had hit him. Then the big center-fielder, whom some of the northern scribes have referred to as an "ice wagon," stole a base just to show that he was not bluffing; but he died on third.

The "Angels" scored twice in the third inning. Roach opened up with a double to left and came in on Rasty Wright's single. The big first baseman to second on "Midget" Sweeney's error, stole third and came in when Pace muffed McCauley's fly, which he made a hard run for.

"Kid" Hulen singled in the fourth, but failed to score. In the fifth, for more of the giants made the circuit. Wright opened up with a slashing triple against the left-field fence, Tredway walked to first and Glenavlin's fly was muffed by Pace. McCauley fouled out and then the bases were all cleared by Hasamcar's home drive to center for two bags. "Gentle Willie" also scored by making a daring steal and a headlong slide to the plate. Roach found the ball for a single in the sixth, but was caught at second.

In the eighth Hasamcar led off with a single, Newman followed with another and they both worked home on Rogers' hit and Pete Sweeney's error. Stafford forced Rogers out on his hit toward second and the pitcher reached home in safety, when Ray Levy, the idol of the San Francisco kindergarten, dropped Wright's fly.

In the ninth the local prizes added another to their side, when Glenavlin singled, made a circus slide to second and came home on "Pop" McCauley's two-bagger.

Jack Roach, the south-paw twirler, had the visitors entirely at his mercy for the first five innings, and did not allow them a single hit. In the eighth Coughlin sent the ball to Glenavlin, who missed it, and the runner was out. Then Spies sacrificed and Hoffman waited for four balls. The "Midget" fouled out and Coughlin scored on Pace's single—the first hit made by the visitors.

Reitz was given his first on balls, and all three scored on Pete Sweeney's single and Wright's error. In the eighth little Danny opened with a single to short left, got second and succeeded in scoring, while Pace, who walked to first, was being run down while trying to reach second.

Roach put up a magnificent game. He appears to have excellent control, and certainly has good control. He was hit safely but twice in six innings yesterday, and had the visitors entirely at his mercy. Stafford caught Coughlin's "warning up" and allowed Hasamcar men only four hits, all singles, in three innings. Hoffman worked hard and pitched a good up-hill game. He also has good control and put the ball right over the plate, the fact his delivery seemed to suit "The Angels" all right.

The following is the official score of yesterday's game:

DIAMOND DUST.
Glenavlin's double play captured the broué.

Game will be called at 8 o'clock this afternoon.

"Kid" Hulen is well-liked by all the old timers.

Freeway is always full of ginger, and is hard to beat as a coacher of the callopie voice order.

Roach struck out "Midget" Sweeney twice yesterday.

Young Pace was apparently a victim to stage fright yesterday.

Hoffman did not succeed in striking out a single one of "The Angels."

Prof. Jack Fanning, who was such a favorite here last winter, will pitch for San Francisco today.

The "Los Angeles Fan," the official score-card of the Los Angeles club, is pronounced the finest score-card ever issued on the Pacific Coast.

Old "Pop" McCauley gets everything that comes his way, and will dive clear down in the earth for a ball.

Stafford has a splendid slowball which proved good bait for the San Francisco players. All of them bit at it.

Several of the members of both clubs declared last evening that Umpire McDonald's work yesterday afternoon was the best they had ever seen done by an umpire at any league game. Not a single objection was heard to any of his decisions. He also has a splendid voice, which is heard distinctly all over the field.

The Times prize of a season ticket, worth $40, to be given to the person who guesses the correct score of Sunday's ball game, means that there is but one prize ticket, and in view of the fact that more than one person may guess the correct score it is understood that in case two or more correct ballots are received they will all be placed in a box and the ballot which is drawn out by a disinterested person will entitle its sender to the season ticket as stated. The name of the person entitled to the ticket will be announced tomorrow morning.

OPENING AT FRISCO.

Oakland and San Jose Cross Bats.—The latter win by a score of 4 to 1.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The usual street parade with brass band accompaniment preceded the opening of the California League season in this city this afternoon. There were several noted citizens of both San José and Oakland in the line of carriages. The afternoon was misty and threatening and the unfavorable weather doubtless deterred many from attending the first game between the "Colonels" and "Dukes." Yet the attendance was a surprise to even the most hopeful of the league directors. It was the largest Saturday afternoon gathering at a league game in this State, estimates placing the spectators at from 5000 to 6000. It was an enthusiastic throng, too, and as the game was a lively one, and developed some magnificent playing, many opportunities for applause were rendered.

Barring the poor work of Hutchinson at third base and the fielding of Pitcher Neil, the game was well played and was above the standard of opening-day games, but lack of team work was obvious in the Oakland. This may be explained by lack of team practice. Shortstop Ely did not appear with the Oakland and Peebles guarded the short field for the Colonels. McGucken of San José is sick and Fred Roberts played left field for Finn's team.

From the outset it was noticeable that San José was in splendid fielding form and their team work strongly contrasted with the play of their opponents. Jerry Denny, an old California favorite, was given a rousing welcome, and when he made one of his old-time left-handed stops the cheering was furious. The greatest excitement of the game, however, was caused by a play by George Sharpe, who, at a critical moment, retired a runner at the plate on a long and accurate throw from deep center field. There was very little successful bona fide base-stealing, although several attempts were made, but both Catchers Clark and Wilson nipped the stealing in the bud. The Oakland outbatted San José, though it was evident that Lookabaugh was not employing all the strength of his pitching arm, depending on the support of his team. O'Neill pitched a strong game and hits against him were scarce.

The features were running catches by Smith, McVey and Roberts, Sharp's throw and Denny's third base work. The general opinion is that both teams are stronger than last year's clubs from the same towns. The game was evenly played up to the sixth inning, San José scoring in the first through Hutchinson's errors. Oakland scored in the fifth on clean hitting. In the ninth inning San José put the clinch on their victory by getting two runs on Smith's muffed and wild throws by Hutchinson, Wilson and O'Neill.

Christian Workers.
A meeting attended by some 250 "Christian workers" from all denominations was held at the Gospel Union Mission yesterday afternoon for the purpose of organizing for more specific work among the abandoned class of the city. Addresses were made by Maj. Hilton and Rev. G. W. Henning, and three committees were appointed, one to take charge of and further the mid-night mission for girls, one to assume control of the Sunday morning breakfast for tramps, and a third to cooperate with the visiting committee in relieving cases of real necessity.

A Big Land Sale.
It is stated on good authority that the great Malibu rancho, near Santa Monica, has been sold to Mr. Hinde at a good price.

The tract of 3000 acres brought $11 per acre and the remaining 15,000 sold for $10 per acre. The eastern line of the rancho begins on the coast about six miles from Santa Monica and extends up to near Hueneme.

THE BUSY BEE!

All day Saturday our store resembled a veritable bee-hive. It was a rustle, bustle and jam all day long. Prof. Romandy was on hand and discoursed the sweetest music for the occasion. We are under obligations to the Southern California Music Company for one of their finest pianos.

Bishop & Co., the well-known confectioners, furnished us with 300 pounds of fine French candies, but it disappeared long before the rush was over. Well, we gave the public some great bargains yesterday; we will do the same

MONDAY!

And we know they will be appreciated. We have many broken lines on hand that will be marked down to a ridiculous figure on Monday. Look out for the announcement.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Weekly Reports of Voluntary Correspondents for Southern California.

Following is the regular weekly weather and crop bulletin for Southern California, issued by the United States Weather Bureau and the Chamber of Commerce, for the week ending March 25:

Hueneme (S. L. Mack).—The rain of Saturday and Sunday was beneficial to crops, but more is needed. Highest temperature during the week, 75°; lowest, 43°. Light rain fell on the 10th, which was beneficial to growing grain. The weather is slightly cloudy, with some indications of rain, more of which is needed.

Lancaster, Antelope Valley, elevation 2500 feet (J. P. Ward).—The weather during the past week has been showery and blustering and grain in this section was slightly injured by high winds on the 22d and 23d. Several light frosts occurred, which did a little damage to fruit.

Los Angeles city (George E. Franklin).—The weather during the past week was cooler than the seasonal average; the temperature ranged from 1° to 7° daily below the normals, except on the 24th, when it was 1° in excess. The highest during the week was 75°, lowest 43°. Light rain fell on the 19th and 20th, which helped vegetation considerably, but more is needed to mature crops.

Quarte (W. B. Bliss).—The late sown grain needs rain, everything else is looking well. Light rain fell on Saturday and Sunday. Highest temperature during the week, 75°; lowest, 40°. The orange crop is still moving.

Pomona (John Wasson).—Crops are all doing well. The weather during the past week was cloudy, with some rain. The week has been a combination of sunshine and shadow. Very light rain fell on Saturday and today (Thursday) the sky is overcast.

Chino (Edwin Rhodes).—Threatening weather prevailed several days, but little rain fell for the past week has not been enough for any material benefit. The sugar-beet crop is coming up well, and is looking a good showing. Twenty acres have been planted up to the present time. Rain is needed, though nothing is suffering.

Riverdale (W. E. Keith).—Grain men are anxiously looking for rain, as wheat and barley in many localities are suffering. The temperature during the week remained about normal; the highest was 70°, the lowest 34°.

Tustin (E. D. Buss).—No rain has fallen since last report; less fog occurred than for several weeks previous and the weather has been generally cool and clear. Barley is beginning to suffer from drought, and there have been some indications of fruit trees are blooming well. Several heavy orange-growers are shipping on their own account, rather than sell at prices offered by buyers here.

Rodeo de los Aguas Ranch (H. H. Denker).—Corn is being planted and also three varieties of sugar beets for experiment and test for the factory which is to be erected next year. Lemon, orange and olive trees are being extensively planted. Grain is looking well. The system for irrigating the Cahuenga Valley lands is being developed.

THE SAME ON BOTH OCEANS.

Newport News Complains Also of Steamship Line.

Col. Blanton Duncan, the recipient, hands THE TIMES the following letter for publication. It fully explains itself:

RICHMOND (Va.), March 18, 1892.
Dear Sir: At the instance of my friend, the Hon. George D. Wise, member of Congress from this district, I write to ask that you will send me a copy of the LOS ANGELES TIMES containing an editorial under the caption, "A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever."

As I can close out at private sale the choicest stock ever brought to the city. Remember, Klages, No. 120 West First street.

San Diego as is proposed by the United States, and Brazil Mail Steamship line toward Newport News.

It is high time that the country was resisting with all its force the outrageous discriminations of these subsidized monopolies. I send you a copy of the Richmond State of last evening. In it you will find extracts of a speech made by Mr. Huntington at Newport News on the 16th inst., the occasion of the speech being the launching of a large steamer there. He then declared that Newport News should be the "great entrepôt of American commerce," that it was the "center of the great Atlantic coast line," etc. Mr. Huntington is the largest owner in the United States and Brazil Mail Steamship line. When he reached Richmond yesterday I had him interviewed, as reported in the same issue of the State, which contains the Newport News speech.

Please note carefully that in the interview, after being pressed to the wall, he admits that this company, under the dictation of New York coffee importers, will discriminate against Newport News by refusing to bring coffee there after July 1. At the same time he is doing all in his power to secure the mail contract under the bill approved March 18, 1891, entitled "An act to provide for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports; and to amend the act of March 3, 1878, in relation to the same." In other words, he is insisting on having the money provided by this bill for the promotion of commerce, while under cross-examination he confesses that he is distinctly engaged in an effort to discriminate against it and to restrict it. You will observe that last speech was made in the Chamber of Commerce of Richmond; at this instance visited the President and Postmaster-General, urging the claims of his company for this subsidy.

The chamber took this action upon the most positive assurance that the service between Newport News and the Brazil line would be greatly improved. At the same time there were no sailing each way per month between Newport News and the Brazil line.

Last fall the company of which I am president commenced the importation of coffee via Newport News. From that time to the present the Brazil line, under the dictation of New York coffee importers, has been fighting us. They now notify us that after the 1st of July they will bring no more coffee to Newport News.

My excuse for writing you at such length is the interest taken by you in the action of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, which seems to be identical the same policy now being pursued by the Brazil line. Newport News it seems to me that your cause and ours is the same. I would like to have the press from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast watch for me. I am less than elsewhere. [Branch office, No. 80 East Colorado street, where news, advertisements and orders for the Times are received.]

A regular meeting of the City Council was held yesterday afternoon, President Lukens in the chair and all the trustees present except Mr. Banbury.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from J. B. Young, president of the Pasadena Park Tract Land and Water Company, proposing and asking to dedicate the company's bridge across the arroyo, known as the Yocum bridge, to the city for highway purposes and the east approach provided the city maintain and use the same as a public highway. Ordered filed.

A resolution of intention was passed to grade Bradford street between Orange Grove and Grand avenues to conform to the official grade here established.

On motion the time for the completion of the grading of Summit avenue was extended ten days.

An ordinance was passed granting a franchise and right-of-way to the Pasadena Railway Company through the city. It provides for an ordinary steam railway and the time is for thirty days. This is the Altadena line, now held and operated by the Los Angeles Terminal Company, lessors of the Pasadena Railway Company.

The matter of the arroyo bridge, mentioned above, was referred to the City Attorney and City Engineer for investigation and recommendation.

T. S. Stern was granted permission to erect a frame cottage on South Delacy street.

A petition from property-owners, asking that the official grade of Raymond avenue between Villa and Easter streets be established, was read and the subject matter referred to the City Engineer.

The Committee on Auditing and Finance recommended that the bill of J. F. Steen for $35.55 be paid, also that $57.51 be transferred from the library fund to the expense fund, and $59.62 from the general fund to the expense fund. Report adopted.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE WILSON BOYS GET THERE.

An exciting game of ball was played yesterday afternoon between the Wilson school nine and the Washington school club, which resulted in a victory for the Wilson boys by the score of 7 to 3.

The game was marked by brilliant plays throughout. The teams were made up as follows: Wilson—Phelps, shortstop; Blatnick, first base; McQuinn, right field; Knight, catcher; Beckwith, third base; McQuinn, second base; Roche, left field; Bebe, center field; Palmer, pitcher; Washington—J. Buchanan, pitcher; Hough, center field; Allen, left field; Oyster, second base; Ralphs, third base; Willis, catcher; Doane, right field; McCarty, first base; Buchanan, shortstop.

The score by innings was:

Wilson	0	1	1	0	2	1	0	7
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	3

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

A remarkable dog tourist passed through Pasadena Friday on his way East. From going to and fro on the mail wagons in New York the animal one day decided to take a trip with certain mail pouches, following them back again in their course. The trips gradually lengthened until now the dog is making a tour of the continent. He gets off at the eating stations with great regularity, but at the first stop of the locomotive he is quickly taken place again by the side of the pouches. Numerous tags form a collar round his neck, the consignments of different postal clerks.

LEARNING HOW TO VOTE.

Quite a number of voters received some practical instruction as to the proper methods of casting their ballots on election day, under the Australian system. The requisite number of voters were present and a set of election booths were provided, where ballots were prepared with due formality. City Attorney Arthur acted as master of ceremonies and read a compendium of valuable information. Those present were apt pupils and there is no doubt but that everybody will know how to vote before election day.

HEAVY PASSENGER TRAVEL.

The railroad did an unusually heavy passenger business yesterday, and there was waiting to account for it except the fine weather and perhaps the baseball match. Most of the morning trains carried three cars, all well filled, and at 1 o'clock Conductor Haggin left with a train of four cars with almost every seat occupied. One of the big locomotives was called into service to draw a train of half a dozen cars out from Los Angeles at 3:30 in the evening. Such a state of affairs as this speaks volumes for the increased activity and prosperity of this section.

PASADENA BREVITIES.

Herbert C. Brown, of the law firm of Hahn & Brown, left for the north yesterday to look after his business interests. He will return the first of the week.

Advance orders for the Kite-shaped Track edition have been large. No less than 1500 copies of this edition were received in Pasadena this morning.

The opera-house attractions have been of a high order this winter, and as a result the patronage has materially increased. The management is to be congratulated.

George F. Foster continues to devote his best efforts toward increasing the efficiency of his street-car service and of contributing all possible pleasure and comfort to his patrons.

The Society for Ethical Culture will hold a regular meeting in the Conservatory of the Colorado room at 10 o'clock tomorrow night. Mr. Hill will present a paper. An invitation is extended to all interested.

Mr. Utley, who so thoroughly interested his audience last night at the University Church, will complete his lecture tonight at the same place. Rev. Dr. Conger will occupy the pulpit this morning.

A fair-sized and enthusiastic audience went to see That Girl from Mexico at the opera-house last night by Mr. and Mrs. Siddons. The play was well received, and the performance the band gave a concert in front of the opera-house.

The funeral of Mrs. Nellie Thayer took place on Friday from the home of her parents in Los Angeles. She died at a time in Pasadena and was a member of the Universalist Church. Rev. Dr. Conger conducted the services.

Rev. H. G. Spaulding is to give a reading of selections from the poems of Robert Browning in the Hotel Green parlors Thursday afternoon next. He will be assisted by Miss Allen. Coleman will illustrate the music poems with selections on the piano.

The Sidney Drew company made their headquarters at Hotel Green. Other recent arrivals include: John Harold and wife, W. L. Payne, H. W. Johnson, Norman Campbell, Robert Durham, San Diego; O. J. Macomber, John B. Russell, Los Angeles.

The Young Men's Christian Association meeting will unite this afternoon with the mass-meeting at the Methodist Episcopal Tabernacle, beginning at 2:30 o'clock, at which time Mr. Henna, the evangelist, will deliver an address. Young men are welcome.

There will be preaching at the Christian Chapel on North Fair Oaks avenue, at 11 o'clock and 7:30 p.m. today, by the pastor, Rev. T. D. Garvin. The morning theme will be "What is Truth" and in the evening "How do We Become Heirs with Christ?"

Extra copies of the special "Kite-shaped" edition of THE TIMES, of which this is a copy, may be obtained at the Pasadena office, No. 80 East Colorado street, for the sum of one cent. Valuable information concerning Pasadena and vicinity and is just the thing to send to your friends back East. The price is the same as the regular edition—5 cents a copy.

POMONA.

Compromise Effected by R. N. Loucks—Personal and General.

All the creditors of R. N. Loucks, who appointed a trustee several days ago, pending an agreement, have signed a compromise. Also, all the Pomona creditors except Col. Brooks, who when he was in the building, the compromise has been forwarded to San Francisco, and it is believed the creditors of that city will also sign. It is to be hoped all will sign from the fact that Mr. Loucks has long been a resident of Pomona and is now in the city.

Col. Brooks is willing to sign provided Mr. Loucks will stay in his storehouse, but Mr. Loucks has been released from his contract with the Col. Brooks, leased a smaller building. The matter will probably be adjusted in a few days.

J. A. Bidwell leaves for New York today on a business trip, over the Santa Fé.

The United Methodist Church will not meet Monday night as formerly announced.

Everybody is anxiously waiting to see The Confederate Spy to be given at the opera-house April 1. The play is a new one, and the Flower Mission young ladies and the City Guards.

The attorneys in the case of the city vs. Charles W. Hix, it is said, will submit the case to the Superior Court on the same evidence and stipulations as in the Copeland case. Both the cases were stopped on writ of prohibition and the Copeland case set till April 11 and Mullaity's April 18.

Two of our prominent citizens are working hard to make arrangements for renting and operating the cannery this season, but have not closed the agreements yet. The value of the property is undoubtedly a good reason for her fruits this time if these gentlemen succeed.

A large delegation turned out yesterday to witness the race at Chino between the Pomona and the Chino teams. The Pomona team, led by Mr. Fugua of this city, the horses were put up one against the other, the race winning by a narrow margin. The Pomona team was led by Mr. Fugua, and the Chino team by Mr. Fugua.

Judge H. M. Willis Stricken with Paralysis.

Riverside in the Throes of a Heated Municipal Campaign.

The Main Issue a Fight Over the Motor Franchise.

Death of a Respected Citizen of Redlands.

—The Cotton Municipal Campaign—News Notes and Personal.

SAN BERNARDINO.

[Branch office at Stewart Hotel news stand, where news, advertisements and orders for the Times are received.]

Yesterday morning at about 2 o'clock Judge H. M. Willis was suddenly stricken with paralysis of the left side and it is feared he may not recover. Judge Willis is one of San Bernardino's most respected citizens and has a host of friends who hope for his recovery. He is a man with a strong constitution, is receiving the best medical attention, but he has of late been affected with heart trouble, which may be aggravated and prove more serious than it would otherwise.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVITIES.

B. J. McQuinn is down from the mines at Victor.

Florence Balgairne, London, England, is a guest at the Stewart.

There is a party of Michigan capitalists here seeking investments. The city will be a place of paying.

W. R. Stevenson is the happy possessor of a new boy; weight, ten pounds.

Mrs. Hyland Rice and mother, Mrs. R. W. Waterman, have started East for a visit.

Dr. M. Hagan has been appointed resident physician at Arrowhead Hot Springs Hotel.

The new cement sidewalk on the "south side" of Court street, now almost completed, is a fine piece of paving.

W. H. Barton expects to start tomorrow for a three months' journey through the East, going as far as New York.

An all night meeting will be held upon the premises, work upon the foundation of the new county jail has not been resumed.

Another masquerade ball at Liberty Hall occurred last evening, to the enjoyment of those who like the amusement.

Bear Valley will have a regular postoffice this summer, to be known as Reservoir. John R. Metcalf has been appointed postmaster.

The blutonium rock surface has been completed on the Court street pavement and it will be ready for travel as soon as it hardens.

The vitrified brick paving upon the west half of E street, between Second and Third, is almost all laid. The other side will be laid this week.

From advance sales it appears that the Kite-shaped Track Edition of THE TIMES is to be as popular as the route from which it is derived.

There is a demand for more tenement houses than can be found in the city. It is much like boom times to see all houses occupied and hear the cry for more.

The central portion of the city will be pretty well paved as soon as present contracts are completed. The trustees should push the paving toward the suburbs along the principal thoroughfares.

Friday's records of transfers of real estate showed a total consideration of $13,729. The total number was thirteen, the largest being a tract of twenty-eight acres on Cypress avenue, adjoining the famous Smiley Heights, paying therefor $12,000.

COLTON.

Mrs. M. L. Ferguson has returned from San Diego, where she has been engaged in a suit against McBean & Bill to recover $3000 due her as commission on lands sold by her. The case has been before the United States District Court, and the jury has finally secured judgment in her favor. The defendants will probably appeal the case.

James E. Bennett has purchased of L. L. Rogers ten acres of land in the South Rialto tract.

Last Thursday evening there was a fine picnic at the Methodist church, with Miss Blanche Rogers.

Colton is in the midst of a municipal campaign, in which he is running for mayor. He is a native of Colton, and has been in the city for many years. He is a man of high character and is well known to the people of the city.

A party of picknickers went to the mountains for a day's outing yesterday. The party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, San Bernardino's silver-tongued orator and attorney, was of the party and no doubt gained new information from the trip.

Beware of the beer bottle. The danger does not all lie in its contents. While endeavoring to open a bottle W. R. Wenzelbach had his hand crushed by the breaking of the bottle and will not be able to use it for some time.

Complaints are current respecting the speeding of horses on the streets. The streets of San Bernardino are no longer desert trails upon which an equine might dash as he pleases. Civilization, even in the suburbs, is making its way, and the restraint upon the individual, especially if he be of the cowboy persuasion.

No clew has yet been received as to the whereabouts of Charles W. Hix, the burglar who escaped from F. B. Daley in the vicinity of Mojave while the latter was escorting him to San Quentin. Sheriff C. C. Seymour offers $100 for the capture of the second convict to escape within a few weeks, each wearing an Oregon boot.

RIVERSIDE.

Riverside is now in the throes of a heated municipal campaign, the election to come off April 11. The subject upon which the voters are to be called is the franchise for the city of Riverside. The policies of the respective political parties, but is purely local, as it should be. There are no party candidates, as such, in the campaign. The subject is a local one, and the voters are to be called upon to decide upon the franchise for the city of Riverside.

London, has purchased of John Norwood of New Jersey ten acres near the city for $14,500, and will erect a fine house thereon. The guests at the Arlington recently gave a party, the receipts of which were donated to a fund for a window in All Saints' Church. There was a net return of $103.

REDLANDS.

[Branch office at T. M. Dugan's news stand, where news, advertisements and orders for the Times are received.]

On Friday occurred the death of one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Redlands, that of T. W. Ladd, aged 66 years, and one of the pioneers of this city. He had been well and strong until about a year ago, when he became troubled with cancer of the stomach, and his health declined gradually until the time of his death. He had recently finished and moved into a fine new residence, one of a number that he had built in Redlands. Mr. Ladd was known to everybody in the city, and greatly respected by all. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Redlands Lodge, No. 309, P. M. A. M., at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his late residence.

REDLANDS BREVITIES.

The Facts will soon be printed upon a city of Redlands, one less is ordered.

The City Trustees very properly prohibit the painting of signs upon the sidewalks.

It is rumored that some very important real estate deals are being completed in Redlands, and it is not unlikely that they will be completed in the near future.

Mrs. M. C. Wentworth and Mrs. M. W. Black of the Raymond, Pasadena, are guests at the Windsor.

The trestle on the motor line will soon be completed, and the line no longer be delayed from that cause.

E. A. Peterborough of St. Paul, Minn., is enjoying this sunny weather in Redlands, a guest at the Windsor.

A petition has been circulated for the city to accept Wabash street, and the matter is now in the hands of the Street Committee.

The papers for the arrest of E. F. Howe, for the same offense, have been served. It is probable that they never will be, as the complainant has a very poor case.

The gutters in front of the places of Leland and McKnight will be relaid, as they are not properly placed, says the City Engineer.

The Episcopal Mission has been organized in a parish, with Messrs. Ruggles, Ford, Otis, Richardson, Tench, Hemingway, McCabe, Lee and Dane as vestrymen.

L. P. Doolittle, principal stockholder of the City of Redlands, has been elected to the office of mayor of the city.

An all night meeting will be held upon the premises, work upon the foundation of the new county jail has not been resumed.

Another masquerade ball at Liberty Hall occurred last evening, to the enjoyment of those who like the amusement.

SANTA ANA.

[Branch office at No. 306 West Fourth street, where news, advertisements and orders for the Times are received.]

Who is Rita Bailey, and where is her father, James E. Bailey? A letter from New Carlisle, O., in which was inclosed the following appeal from the pen of a sixteen-year-old girl, who lives in San Bernardino, was received in this city a few days ago:

"I am trying to find my father. I am told that his name is James E. Bailey. I have no recollections of him, nor do I remember that I ever looked upon the face of a relative. My mother died fifteen years ago in Brown county, Iowa, when I was only a year old. Shortly after mother's death I was adopted by a neighbor, named Morgan. When I was about 8 years old we removed to Nebraska and at this time father seemed to be lost track of me. I understand that he tried to find me, but was basely led by an interested party to believe that I had died. I have only recently learned that the Morgans are not my parents. They are nothing to me; I am nothing to them. They have made me a home, but I am lonely and sad. I believe my own dear father is living somewhere in this wide world, and if he is I mean to find him. You assist me if you will, but I can offer you no reward at present, only my gratitude and my blessings. If you are unable to give me any information regarding my father, please help me to publish and circulate this notice. Sincerely yours,

San Bernardino, Cal. RITA BAILEY.

SANTA ANA BREVITIES.

It is, or at least should be, surprising to every one that we are compelled to import any breadstuffs; yet our imports last year, of barley alone, amounted to 5,100,000 bushels, at a cost of $3,200,000. We raised but 64,000,000 bushels of this crop on 3,000,000 acres. There are reasons why the production should be greatly increased. The first is, we do not produce enough for home consumption; the second and more important is, there is no cereal raised that has such a quick market.— [Exchange.

A Bloody Encounter Between Two Men About a Woman.

One of Them Knocked Down and Had Beaten About the Face and Head—The Victim Refuses to Prosecute.

At 1 o'clock yesterday morning queer character put in an appearance at the central police station. At first he refused to give his name. But he

He was slightly under the influence of grip medicine, and from the condition of his head, which was wrapped up in white cloths, he had just emerged from a doctor's presence. His body was covered with blood and he looked as if he had been through a sausage machine. A portion of the blood had been washed from his face by the doctor who patched him up, but there was enough left

As soon as Mr. Brown discovered that he was known he began to hedge and refused to say anything about his troubles, notwithstanding the fact that he visited the police for the purpose of making a kick of some kind. Several of the brightest officers on the night watch questioned him and cross-examined him.

Just as the great intellects of the police squad were about to give Brown up as a hard game Detective Bosquini said that cat-like tread was heard on the outside walls and the French Hawkshaw entered. Bosqui was consulted by the inner squad and the man of the blood head was turned over to him.

It is not known what influence was brought to bear on Brown, but it is certain that his bloody jaws were set to work and a queer grin was on his face. It seems that Brown and his handsome Frechman, Fred and Pudrick, room in

Now, there resides in this house a buxom landlady, and, from Saturday night's developments, both Brown and the Frenchman are in love with the fair one. Brown, who is not quite so pretentious as Rudick, has not kept up in the chase after the widow's heart, but he has made good headway and is cock of the walk when he is about the house. Saturday night he has business down town, and he declines several hours of his return home between 11 and 12 o'clock he learned that the widow

His rival had gone out for a moonlight stroll, notwithstanding the fact that the moon is not visible at this time.

He was so angry that he could not contain himself sufficiently to remain in the shadows of the front gate until the couple returned, so he put on his war paint and set out on a three hour trail. After almost an hour's chase the couple were in sight, and with a yell that would have done credit to an Apache Indian Brown plunged between them.

The Frenchman was taken off his guard, but it only took him a few second to recover, when he squared himself, and the next thing poor Brown knew he was flat on his back, and the Frenchman was landing blow after blow on his head and face. How the widow behaved is not known, but she did not run away, as most women would have done, for as soon as Rudick tired of his sport with Brown's head she took the victorious one's arm, and the two walked away as if nothing had happened.

Brown positively refused to discuss the case, and as no officer witnessed it is more than possible that the police will be unable to do anything in the Brown is not dangerously injured, but he was confined to his bed yesterday and it will be some days before he is able to be out. The officers are of the opinion that Rudick used a club or some blunt instrument, as his fists would not have cut Brown up in such a horrible manner.

The City Council.

The Council will meet this morning 10 o'clock. The usual routine business will probably occupy the morning session and at 2 o'clock the hearing protest against the compensation commissioners for the widening of Seventh street will be commenced. It expected that these proceedings will be quite interesting, and the commissioners will probably be called upon to explain why, when the work had been performed once, and all the data was accessible, the cost should be increased several hundred dollars.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Cough REMEDY
meeting with great favor, not only in Los Angeles, but from ocean to ocean. And since H. J. Mayers, the leading druggist of Los Angeles, and Mr. J. H. Mayers, the leading druggist of San Francisco, both of them endorse Chamberlain's Cough Remedy today. This is the largest record of a medicine ever sold in any city at the same time. It gives the best of satisfaction, too. For it is sold by John Beckwith & Son, Druggists, North Main Street.

AGAIN THE GIANTS WIN.

Another Great Game of Ball at Athletic Park.

A Very Cold Day for Uncle Henry Harris's Talent.

The Score 9 to 2, with the "Babies" at the Big End.

Brilliant Plays and Other Features of the Sensational Order—Heavy Hitting and Clever Fielding Tell the Story.

Yesterday afternoon 2500 people found their way to the Athletic Club Park and alternately shivered and cheered through nine innings of baseball. One minor was due to remark that the weather was more suitable for snowballing than for baseball, but then that man was Uncle Henry Harris, and in his immediate vicinity the thermometer kept getting lower and lower, for the victors in ten successive opening day games had brought their team 500 miles only to see it lose two straight games to the League "babies," and that, too, after Uncle had facetiously remarked at Friday night's reception that the "babies" might be disciplined a couple of times by the old Leaguers on the two opening days.

Yesterday's score was 9 to 2, with Gienalvin's giants at the big end, and Prof. Fanning is probably still wondering if his good right arm has lost its cunning, for he was touched up for twelve safe hits, with a total of sixteen bases. Everybody got a clean drive except "Kid" Hulen, who kept three hot bats in the fielders.

Stafford allowed the visitors only five hits, one of them being a triple, by Coughlin, who placed the ball over against the left field fence, and the sliding of both of the pitchers was perfect.

Fanning was given a great ovation in their ninth inning when he struck out Wright and Tredway, the first two men up. Then Gienalvin came in for his share of applause when he singled to left center, but he was forced out by "Pop" McCauley's hit to second.

Wright, Hasamaear, shouldered his wagon tongue and stepped up to the plate open the second inning he was lustrously cheered, and responded by smashing the ball out into right field for two bases, but he was caught at third by trying to stretch his hit into a triple.

The visitors scored twice in their half of the second, whereat a faint smile illumined the face of Mr. Harris. Pete Sweeney was hit by the ball, and stole second. Levy and Sharp were quickly retired, when young Mr. Coughlin, brother of Roscoe Coughlin, the famous twirler for last year's New York Giants, brought in the big first baseman, with a beautiful three-bagger to left center, and he himself stole when Spies' hit went through Hasamaear. Uncle Henry's smile however, was of short duration, for, although several of his men afterward made a successful start on the circuit, none of them got beyond third base.

The Angels began to gauge Fanning in the fourth. Rogers and Stafford, the first two men up, were quickly retired at first base. Wright and Tredway were allowed to walk, and Gienalvin brought in the lead with a double to right field. McCauley added a single to center, and stole second, when "Gentle Willie" Hasamaear cleared the bases with a two-bagger to left. Newman went out at first base, and a big figure "4" went up in the Los Angeles column on the score board.

Wright opened the fifth with a double, Tredway sacrificed him to third and he scored on McCauley's single.

The Giants put a clinch in their victory in the ninth, when they added four runs. Hulen went out on a high fly to Sharp and singles by Rogers, Stafford, Wright and Tredway earned two runs. Tredway's hit went through Pace, and the big fellow, by running, stole second, landed on third ahead of the ball and stole home behind Wright while Spies was napping.

The game was replete with brilliant plays and other features of the sensational order. Among the highlights were the batting of Wright, Gienalvin and Hasamaear, "Midget" Sweeney's fielding, McCauley's sensational catch of Coughlin's hot liner in the fourth, Rogers' running catch of a foul in the eighth, Coughlin's work at short and two double plays by Hasamaear, Gienalvin and McCauley.

An amusing incident happened when an attempt was made to put Sharp out when he was forced to second. The ball was thrown wild to Gienalvin, who slid for the base feet first at the same instant J. Peck landed against it in the same attitude from the other side. It was a close play and the runner was declared safe.

DIAMOND DUST.
The real battle will begin on Wednesday. Tredway says the "Angels" have not yet begun their regular season's stick work.

There were 1801 coupons dropped in the Tins Ballot box, 919 of which guessed Los Angeles for winners.

Newman's appearance would indicate that he is a sprinter, but he appears to be the slowest man in the team on the base lines.

On Wednesday Duke Finn opens here with his San José aggregation, and the "Angels" will make a hard hit to keep the club percentage at the .000 notch.

It is quite a relief to have a capable umpire in Los Angeles. Mr. McDonald made only one mistake yesterday, when he called Gienalvin's foul in the third a fair hit.

President Vanderbeck was probably the happiest man in Los Angeles last night. Two years ago he was continually apologizing for the tail-enders in the Pacific Northwest League, and Henry Harris was his club manager. Vanderbeck considers Gienalvin the king-pin baseball general of the West.

A London (England) evening paper printed a column article recently favorable to baseball as an English game, and advised the football clubs and cricketers to give it a trial. At the annual meeting of the National Baseball Association, held at Manchester last month, Newton Crane was elected president.

The "Busy Bee" shoe store offered $2.50 for the first base hit, and $2.50 for the first three-bagger in yesterday's game. Gienalvin was the former, and the latter will be given to Tredway, who certainly earned it on his hard run in the ninth. The "Busy Bee" will give $5 for every home run made this season by members of the local club on the home grounds.

The Successful Guessers.
The successful guessers in the Tins' contest were: Fred Dennis, No. 248 North Bunker Hill avenue; E. E. Melsted, No. 116 West Second street; C. Payne, No. 1021 Buena Vista street; Anna E. Crawford, No. 119 North Bunker Hill avenue, and C. A. Ludlow, No. 885 Santa Pearl street. The six coupons were numbered and laid to one side and six slips of paper were then numbered and placed in a hat. One of the slips was then drawn from the hat, and, on unfolding it, it was found to be numbered "6," which corresponded with the number on the back of A. Melsted's coupon, and that gentleman will receive his ticket today. The total number of ballots deposited was 1801.

SAN JOSE WINS AGAIN.
Her Team Takes Another Game from Oakland—Score 11 to 4.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.] Ten thousand people witnessed the game between the Oakland and San José clubs this afternoon. The game was not an exciting one on account of the contest being uneven from the start. The superiority of the San José team over the Oakland club, as the latter is now composed, was manifest at the beginning. The San José players batted O'Neill's pitching almost at will, and their sharp stick work was all that saved the game from being uninteresting. The Oakland players a better fielding game today, but their batting was decidedly weak. George Harper, who was in the box for the victors, had a slightly sore arm, and after his side took the lead in the first inning, he merely tossed the ball over the plate, but even then the Oakland found it hard to put the ball into safe territory.

General prominent baseball experts here agree that the changes made in the San José team have improved it 25 per cent., and that Oakland must be strengthened to hold a leading place in the league race. The score is as follows:

THE SILVER-DOLLAR WOMAN.
Call for a Permanent Type of Beauty for Our Coinage.

[Boston Herald.]
The new coins showing Miss Anna L. Williams' pretty profile as Liberty are an improvement on the "cash" which has worn out our pocket-books for so many years, but there is still something to be desired. Before the lines of this new Liberty are quite obliterated by circulation would it not be well for the designers and officials who look after the coinage of this young country just to decide on a model for beauty, have her idealized and then cast the die for all time! Although Miss Williams is doubtless a handsome woman, there was no good reason why the designer should have perpetuated her with a swollen jaw, and sent her down to posterity as she appears on the new half dollar, for instance. The Græco-American type is a divine mingling of the classic and the modern, but perfect regularity of features, illustrated by Greek art, is not lovely in the latter sense, save in one solitary instance—the Venus of Milo, who has a profile the world loves to kiss. The other day chance brought me in a prosaic electric car beside a girl whose profile was the most beautiful example of piquant delicacy and regularity possible to conceive. Glances were stolen at her from time to time, and the artistic spirit which animates even the average Bostonian had begun to boil with admiration when just at that moment she turned her front face and the ideal vision melted into thin air. She was actually ordinary. A sculptor could have told what was the matter with the proportions, but it only proved to the lady's mind that this thing we call beauty exists merely in fractions, and that the perfect whole is but a dream of genius after suppling full on many models. Nevertheless, could the lovely profile, which is a possession in itself, be given to the designers of our American Liberty, what a boon it would be to spendthrifts. Instead of parting with their "change" it might then be saved for the sake of the girl who adorned it.

Attempt to Burn a Dwelling.
Last night at 8 o'clock an alarm of fire was turned in from Jefferson and Main streets. The department turned out, but when they reached Jefferson street the fire had been put out by neighbors. The fire started in A. W. Tschel's residence on Jefferson, near Main street. An investigation showed that someone had poured coal oil on a lot of rubbish by the side of the house and then set it on fire. A neighbor saw it and gave the alarm. Then several other neighbors ran up and soon scattered the rubbish and put the fire out.

The house is a two-story frame worth $5200. No damage was done.

East Whittier lands are selling fast.
Secure your ten acre lot in too late.
Or by and by you'll bemoan your fate.

UT, wiping the tears from your eyes when your chances are all gone, will do no good, and the wise man who bought in time will have little sympathy for you then. So avoid such a contingency, come to East Whittier; buy while good chances are to be had. A great many acres will be set out in trees on the tract this season, and improvements are going merrily on. We are offering the lands very cheap now on the start; they will be higher soon. Such lands at Redlands or Riverside are bringing $400 to $600 per acre, simply because they have a start, though it is pretty hot there in the summer time. But at East Whittier you can get the sea breeze every day; no need to go to the beach to keep cool, but if you want to take a dip you can drive over to Long Beach in less than two hours. There are few such locations in Southern California.

So come along quick and you can take your pick in the choicest lot of land in all the country side. Dr. Jessup with his gig, or Reed with his horse Nig, will show you the tract and give you a free ride.

You can come to Santa Fe Springs at 8:30 on the Santa Fe, and get back to Los Angeles at 1:20. Drop a line to Dr. JESSUP, at Whittier, a day or two ahead and he will meet you at the train. Write him for full particulars, or to

There is no Business in this City

In any line that is showing so large an increase over the sales of last year as this. The sales on our second floor alone are more than doubling the sales of one year ago. The sales on the first floor are showing an enormous increase. These are facts that any one of our salespeople will verify. There is only one policy pursued to bring about this most gratifying result. The aim is treat all employees most liberally—to show them every consideration, and to make the house the most popular in the city to work in; to be most liberal in their treatment of all patrons of the house; to show them every attention. Every employee is instructed to be courteous, to show goods freely, to urge no sales, and to be polite and prompt to wait upon the trade; and we claim today the best, most affable and energetic force of employees in the city. The class of goods kept has been bettered, the profits lowered, and the sales very largely increased. No one in this city today questions the fact of our doing very much the largest Cloak business. There is not one particle of doubt about our doing the largest Millinery, Corset and Underwear business. The sales in our Dress Goods Department are showing a most wonderful increase, and more than double the number of check-books are being used today than were used one year ago. This tells a story that leaves no room for doubt.

The trade of this house is growing at a wonderful rate. You are sure of good treatment from every employee whether you are a buyer or a looker. The same careful, painstaking care is given. Your good-will is wanted whether you ever buy a dollar's worth of goods or not.

Pass our store and notice the Trimmed Hats we display in our Window? We leave it to you to judge their superior and artistic style of Trimming. As our buyer goes direct to the Eastern markets to select our stock we can furnish you with stylish Millinery equal to the best at prices you would have to pay for inferior goods elsewhere. Before buying your Spring Hat you should look through our stock of Trimmed Hats.

As leaders we sell this week Velvet Roses at 50 cents per bunch and Lace Straw Hats at 35 cents each.

Grand Deception Show!

Our flowers and fruits displayed at our opening were so natural that a good many ladies became so enraptured with the beauties of our display as to undertake to smell them, and a little child began to eat one of our grapes with results ungraceful. Judging from our sales and by what ladies tell us, we sell our Parisian Patterns for less than half what others ask for them. In beauty and variety our straw hats surpass any former styles. Low Prices. Large Sales is our motto.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS

C. P. Huntington will Put His Nephew in Office.

H. E. Huntington is to be Assistant General Manager.

Railroad Magnates Have a Meeting Down in Texas.

Rumors Regarding Jay Gould's Intentions—Another Prospective Mexican Line—General, Local and Personal Mention.

It is now stated, with an air of authority, that C. P. Huntington has decided to make his nephew, H. E. Huntington, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific Company at the annual meeting next month, and it is generally believed that he will at the same time make him a director of the company in the place of W. V. Huntington, another nephew, who has been a director for a number of years past, and who is the brother of H. E. Huntington. A similar statement, which was made several months ago, was denied on the authority of all the parties interested, though a few people were satisfied that the denial effectually put a quietus upon the story. The Examiner says that the appointment of the younger Huntington as assistant general manager is intended to place him in line of promotion to A. N. Towne's position of second vice-president and general manager, but not in the sense of superseding Mr. Towne during the latter's life-time or until sickness or old age may happen to incapacitate him, for it is a fact that Towne is considered by Huntington to be the best-equipped man in his employ. Mr. Towne, however, is getting old, and is not by any means a vigorous man, and there is no question but he is expected to coach the nephew into all the intricacies of his office so that he may be able to take his place when the time comes.

The nephew is now on his way West with C. P. Huntington and Mr. Stillman, of Stillman, Butler & Hubbard, Searles' attorneys, and his coming is not in the nature of a surprise at Fourth and Townsend streets. Indeed, to most of the officials at the local general offices the nephew's arrival is looked upon to mean that President Huntington, realizing that he is getting to be a very old man, is preparing a plan by which, when he dies, his interest in the Southern Pacific Company can be handled and managed intact by his nephew. It is generally believed that Mr. Huntington will provide that all of his property, or all of it in the Southern Pacific, shall be managed by the Huntington Estate Trust after his death by his nephew, and that either the latter or Mr. Stillman or Mr. Hubbard shall succeed him in the presidency.

HUNTINGTON AND GOULD. It is expected that President C. P. Huntington, of the Southern Pacific, will meet Jay Gould at El Paso today to talk over important business affairs. Mr. Gould wants to have, for one thing, an independent line for the Texas Pacific between Sierra Blanca and El Paso, where now his trains have only running rights over the Southern Pacific. Mr. Gould is thought to be thinking, also, that Mr. Gould proposes to build a new road to the Pacific Coast through northern Mexico. It appears that the Southern Pacific has a contract with Gould that he shall not parallel his line to the Pacific Coast. Mr. Gould interprets it as applying only to the United States and says the proposed line through northern Mexico to Guaymas will not nullify the compact, but Mr. Huntington will oppose the scheme. At El Paso Saturday a meeting of prominent business men was held to take steps toward paying off the indebtedness of the defunct White Oaks Railway and turning over the ten miles of completed road to a company now being organized at Denver to build an El Paso and Santa Fe line. It was stated that Jay Gould would build the road if El Paso would turn over the ten miles of completed road with the survey and right-of-way to White Oaks.

SCAP BEAP. Considerable speculative gossip is now being indulged in over the proposed changes in the Southern Pacific directory. Assistant General Passenger Agent H. K. Gregory, of the Southern California road, went over the kite-shaped track yesterday in company with his friend, E. W. McGee, of Springfield, Ill. The Santa Fe Railroad Company will soon erect a hospital for the care of the sick and injured of its employees. Petitions have for some time been in circulation among the workmen in the Atchison shops, the general offices, and most of the stations of the road in Kansas, asking that such a hospital be built.

A Raymond & Whitcomb excursion came in from the East yesterday. The Terminal road had an unusually large number of passengers for Altadena yesterday, despite the inclemency of the weather.

His First Dress Suit. (Topeka Lance.) See a Kansas man in his first dress suit! Gaze on him! Feast your eyes upon his tout ensemble! Observe his hands—his restless, homeless hands! He knows them, but he cannot place them. His trousers have no pockets at the side, one leg feels longer than the other and his feet are in his way. This is his first appearance in a swallow-tail. His moral frame he never before had decked in a toggery like this. Upon his face he wears a smile—a wan, appealing smile—a smile that budded and then froze to death and stuck fast where it died. Look at that smile, and then go weep.

"I Never Loved," Etc. (Chicago Tribune.) Tramping Jake. It's getting to be too hard work to pick up a living in this country. If it wasn't so far away I'd go to Central America. A man don't have to do nothing there. Whole country's covered with bananas. Nothing to do but lay under a tree all day and eat bananas.

Rusty Ruff. Got to pick 'em off'n the trees, ain't ye? "I knowed" 'er was some drawback."

Judge George E. Otis. (Redlands Facts.) The Los Angeles Times nominates Judge George E. Otis for Congressman from the Seventh District. Speaking of Judge Otis, as a neighbor and not a politician, we believe the Republican party would honor itself by selecting Judge Otis to represent the people of this district. He is an able man, with abundant experience in public life and with a character never yet impeached.

Dr. Wong Him. Chinese physician and surgeon, has resided in Los Angeles seventeen (17) years. His reputation as a thorough physician has been fully established and appreciated by many. His large practice is sufficient proof of his ability and honesty. The doctor speaks Spanish fluently.
